72nd NCC DAY CELEBRATION REPORT: 2020

Date: 22/11/2020

The NCC Tangla College celebrated the NCC day on 22nd November, 2020(Sunday) with a day-long colorful program. The event was graced by the presence of senior teachers. The NCC cadets took the charge of preparation for every success of the program. A cleanliness drive was conducted by the cadets in the college campus on a day before the program under my supervision. On the day of celebration, Junior and Senior Cadets arrived at 5.30am with their proper uniform. The program was started at 6.00am by hoisting the NCC flag followed by the NCC song. The invited guest, Prof. Krishna Kt. Basumatary, HoD, Accountancy & President, TCTU hoisted the flag and kept a short speech on the significance of the Day. In his speech, he mentioned that the NCC teaches rules of discipline and promotes thinking unity among diversity and hence it should be made compulsory for every student pursuing studies in schools, colleges and universities across the country. Prof. Hemanta Rabha, Dept. of Pol. Science & Ex. CTO, NCC paid homage to the martyrs and memorized the duty of the cadet that is imperative to pay honour to all brave martyrs. Other teachers, students and cadets also paid homage to the martyrs. The NCC cadets served breakfast to the teachers and students present in the program.

Later, a formal meeting was held at 10.30 am and it was chaired by Associate Prof. Mintu Pathak, Former HOD, Pol. Science & Ex. CTO, NCC, Tangla College. The NCC cadets welcomed the house by a chorus song. In welcome speech, I extended welcome to the Chief guest Associate Prof. Ghateswar Baruah, Former HOD, Assamese, other distinguished guests, teachers, students and senior cadets. As a mark of celebration of the 72nd NCC Day, the agenda began with 'cake cutting' & 'candle lighting' program. The chief was requested for both the program. After the program, the chief guest delivered a remarkable speech on the importance of the celebration of the NCC day in every corner of the country in order to convey the message of importance of the NCC among the youths. In his speech, referring to the Motto of NCC, "Unity and Discipline" he said that the NCC is not about uniform, it is all about discipline and Unity. Cadets should develop a sense of feeling oneness and patriotism. Further, he urged cadets and the students of the house to remain as front line volunteers for the time of national emergency. At the end of speech, he motivated other students to get enrolled in NCC for being a disciplined and righteous person in life. He also made an impassioned appeal to the authority to provide the NCC cadets with more facilities in the near future. A few cadets displayed their latent talents and skills through bating musical drum, playing flute, performing dance, singing songs and anchoring before the guest.

The meeting was graced by respected teachers namely Associate Prof. Dr. Kusum Kr. Goswami, Asst.Prof. Krishna Kt. Basumatary and Asst. Prof. Nripen Baro. Finally, I offered vote of thanks to the chief guest, teachers and all presence in the meeting. The chairperson, with his few words, asked the NCC cadets to sing the NCC song and announced the end of the Program. The meeting came to the end at 2.30pm with Light refreshment.

REPORT ON CLEANLINESS DRIVE UNDER SWACHH BHARAT ABHIYAN AT COLLEGE CAMPUS

The NCC Tangla College organized a cleanliness drive with a theme “To Keep College Campus & Nearby Streets Clean and Tidy” on 31st October, 2020. The main purpose of the program was to create awareness on cleanliness and its benefits among the newly enrolled NCC Cadets and the students pursuing their studies in different classes. The program was carried out under my supervision. Besides Cadets, teachers & a few NSS Volunteers, students also participated in the drive.

The program was started at 10.00 am. Teachers, Cadets, NSS Volunteers and students had picked broom and started the job. A few cadets pulled handcart and others started picking wrappers lying scattered in the campus. After collecting them they threw them into the dustbins. The programme had been continued for three hours. At the end, teachers, Cadets and students assembled in the college canteen and refreshment were provided there in the form of gram, banana, egg and tea. I, on behalf of the NCC, offered heartfelt gratitude and thanks to all the Teachers, Cadets, NSS volunteers and students participated in the drive and making it successful. The drive came to the end at 1.20pm.
