

Report on Celebration of International Women's Day, 2020

IQAC, Women Cell, Darrang Udalguri Zone, Assam College Teachers' Association (ACTA), Tangla College Teachers Unit and IQAC Tangla College, Tangla observed the International Womens' Day on 8th march 2020 and celebrated by organizing an awareness program on literacy and Health of Adivasi Women in the Community Hall of Paneri Tea Estate.

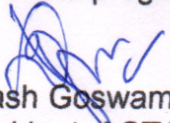

The awareness programme was graced as resource person by Dr Mahesh Deka, former medical officer, Goodricke Tea Ltd. and Dr Barnali Deka, Associate Professor, Department of Political Science of Mangaldai College. Addressing the meet, Dr Deka shed light upon education and health aspects of the women folk of the tea garden area. He also lauded the efforts of the Garden's Mothers' Club and 'Meena' (young girls) units on health and hygiene of the garden community which have been instrumental in bringing a revolution in the health and hygiene.

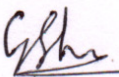

The other resource person Dr Barnali Deka dealt at length the importance of education and urged upon women community to take advantage of various health welfare related schemes of the government.

A local group of girl's school children enthralled the gathering by presenting a Jhumur dance with a strong message against the menace of liquor, child marriage and ignorance.

The representatives of teachers' units and women cells of five different colleges under the zone namely, Mangaldai College, Sipajhar College, Udalguri College, Kharupetia College and Tangla College also attended the meeting where the concluding speech and vote of thanks were offered by the president Darrang-Udalguri zone ACTA Dr Kailash Goswami.

All total of 302 participants including teachers, students and Tea-Tribe Community were present in the program.

(Kailash Goswami)
President, ACTA
Darrang-Udalguri Zone

(Geetali Sarma)
Coordinator IQAC
Tangla College, Tangla
Coordinator IQAC
(Tangla College, Tangla)